OFFERING both original compositions and popular arrangements, these stunning collections are ideal for intermediate-level pianists! Each book includes a companion CD with recordings performed by Ms. Rocherolle.

Composer, lyricist, pianist, and teacher, Eugénie Rocherolle began an early career in publishing with choral and band music. In 1978, with the success of her first piano solo collection, she soon established herself as one of the leading American composers of piano repertoire.

The Eugénie Rocherolle Series is her signature collection, offering both original compositions and popular arrangements with CD recordings performed by Ms. Rocherolle.

A native of New Orleans, she graduated from Newcomb College of Tulane University with a BA in music. Her junior year was spent in Paris where she had a class with Nadia Boulanger. She was honored as the 1995 Outstanding Newcomb Alumna. A "Commissioned by Clavier" composer, she was also one of seven composer members of the National League of American Pen Women whose works were chosen to be presented in a concert at the Terrace Theater of the Kennedy Center, Washington, D.C.
