Celebrating the Musical Legacy of EDNA MAE BURNAM

1907-2007

Edna Mae Burnam majored in piano at the University of Washington where she studied with Vanino, and at Chico State Teacher's College, studying with Olga Steeb in Los Angeles. She taught music in the primary schools of Sacramento, California for many years and eventually opened her own studio there. She has been voted one of five favorite American composers by the National Guild of Piano Teachers. A teacher with a background of solid scholastic preparation and music experience, Edna Mae Burnam has contributed a stream of best-selling piano publications, including the A Dozen a Day series and her Step by Step Piano Course.

A DOZEN A DAY is universally recognized as one of the most remarkable technique series on the market! Each book contains short warm-up exercises to be played at the beginning of each practice session, providing excellent daily training for the student.
