DICTION COACH G. SCHIRMER OPERA ANTHOLOGY

Diction lessons on each aria in the series recorded by top language coaches from The Metropolitan Opera and the Juilliard School plus International Phonetic Alphabet and word for word translations

2 or 3 CDs per package

With these book/CD packages that match the standard aria collections edited by Robert L. Larsen, any singer anywhere has access to the best diction coaching available at a very affordable price. Each aria is recorded twice. In the first version the coach recites the text as an actor would speak it, showing flow of the language and the mood. The second version is a slow, deliberate lesson, allowing time for the student to repeat each line. These experienced language coaches adapt the "R" in German and French in the slow versions for singers. They also are very sensitive to liaisons between word sounds in the musical settings. The book includes International Phonetic Alphabet for each aria and word for word translations.

The native speaking professional diction coaches from the Metropolitan Opera and the Juilliard School are: Corradina Caporello for Italian, Pierre Vallet for French, Irene Spiegelman for German, Kathryn LaBouff for English, Yveta Synek Graff for Czech, and Gina Levinson for Russian.

I'VE GOT A SONG IN BALTIMORE FOLK SONGS OF NORTH AMERICA AND THE BRITISH ISLES A SUPPLEMENT TO MUSIC FOR CHILDREN by Matthew McCoy Schott

A collection of arrangements of folk songs from North America and the British Isles that were conceived as performance pieces for children's chorus with Orff instrument accompaniment. For teachers new to Orff Schulwerk, suggestions for preparing the instrumental parts are included. Many of the accompaniment patterns are prepared through speech and/or body percussion and then transferred to instruments at a later stage. This collection may be used in conjunction with Schott publications Playing Together (HL49017079) by Jane Frazee and Pieces and Processes (HL49013585) by Steven Calantropio.

THE NEW YORK PHILHARMONIC

FROM BERNSTEIN TO MAAZEL

by John Canarina

Amadeus Press

Continuing the story of America's oldest orchestra as told in Howard Shanet's Philharmonic: A History of New York's Orchestra, this book begins with a retrospective account of the controversial last years of the tenure of Dimitri Mitropoulos and the ascendancy of Leonard Bernstein to the music directorship. Having been a Philharmonic assistant conductor during Bernstein's tenure, and an inveterate Philharmonic watcher ever since, the author brings some personal insights to the story as well as moments of humor. Canarina shows how the New York Philharmonic weathered extraordinary ups and downs during this period, while remaining a vital component of New York's cultural life.

LEONARD BERNSTEIN AT WORK

Photography by Steve J. Sherman

Foreword by Lauren Bacall

Preface by Jamie Bernstein

This remarkable photographic essay of Leonard Bernstein during the last six years of his life gives us rare insight into the disparate, sometimes vastly conflicting elements that shaped his work and deeply influenced everyone who was drawn into his inner world. It contains approximately 200 black-and-white photographs, most previously unpublished, taken on and off stage during 20 different events or concerts, along with personal comments and remembrances from over 50 of his colleagues, friends, and relatives.
