NEW ANTHEMS

EASTER SONG

with "Christ the Lord Is Risen Today"

Anne Herring/arr. Joseph M. Martin

Uses: Easter, Hymn Arrangement

Scriptures: Mark 16; John 17:3; I Corinthians 6:14; Colossians 1:18; I Peter 1:18-21

In this glorious pairing for Easter Sunday morning, a vintage song from the early days of contemporary Christian music joins with one of our most time-honored hymns in a joyful shout of praise! The arrangement moves seamlessly between the two genres with ease, and the festive orchestrations send a spirit of acclamation and joy soaring in this "must-do" offering for Resurrection Sunday!

COME, YE SINNERS, POOR AND NEEDY

arr. Heather Sorenson

Uses: Lent, General Worship, Baptism

Scriptures: Psalm 95:1; Psalm 145:2; Isaiah 44:23; Revelation 7:9-10

Rustic elegance best describes this innovative arrangement of a time-honored early American hymn. Message and music join in this anthem, which is filled with splendid moments, including some special vocal effects and an open harmonic vocabulary that speaks to the folk idiom of the work. The themes of repentance and grace are effective in many worship settings, and this singular offering is sure to be a favorite of your singers!

LET US BREAK BREAD TOGETHER

arr. Patti Drennan

Uses: Lent, General Worship, Hymn Arrangement, Communion

Scriptures: Luke 24:30; Acts 2:42; I Corinthians 10:17; I Corinthians 11:24

Here is a reverent setting of a popular communion spiritual arranged with the moderate-sized church choir in mind. Opportunities for unaccompanied singing mingle with sections of lushly accompanied moments, and the final verse is given a triumphal treatment before winding down to a prayerful, reflective conclusion. Simply beautiful!

WHAT A BEAUTIFUL NAME

Ben Fielding/Brooke Ligertwood

arr. Joseph M. Martin

Uses: Easter, General Worship, Eastertide, Praise Team, Youth Choir

Scriptures: Jeremiah 10:6; Luke 10:17; Acts 4:12; Philipians 2:9-11

This ethereal praise song from Hillsong is being sung in churches all over the world. The text is simple but filled with enduring truth that displays the beauty, wonder and power of the Savior's name. The piano provides a basic rhythmic pulse while supporting the vocal learning, and there are instrumental options available. The SAB voicing opens this anthem up to groups of any size. Powerful!

I'LL TRAVEL ON

arr. Charles McCartha

Uses: General Worship, Memorial, All Saints Day

Scriptures: Revelation 21:23; Numbers 33:51; Hebrews 11:16

Here is a meaningful pairing of two treasured folk melodies, with a message that is a hopeful glimpse of our heavenly destination. Refined writing characterizes the piece with pristine piano decorations and elegant vocal lines. Ranges are very user-friendly and each section of the octavo has its own distinctive spirit. A true gem!

John Leavitt

BEAUTIFUL SAVIOR

Fairest Lord Jesus

arr. John Leavitt

Uses: Lent, Christ the Good Shepherd, General Worship, Hymn Arrangement, Introit
Scriptures: Psalm 45:2; Song of Solomon 6:10; Revelation 1:16

A much-loved hymn is cradled with care in this breathtaking a cappella rendering. Approachable part-writing makes this touching arrangement attainable to many ensembles, yet more advanced choirs will revel in its nuance. Each verse of this timeless classic is given special care as it creates a beautiful portrait of the Savior. Lovely!

SHINE ON US

Victoria Schwarz

Uses: Transfiguration Sunday

Scriptures: Matthew 7:2; Mark 9:3; Luke 9:29

Transfiguration Sunday is sometimes a difficult day to fill musically. This fabulous text tells the story joined with a lesser-known early hymn tune. A minimalist keyboard part gives support but also decorates the lyric with delightful word painting. A splendid addition to the sacred choral repertoire!

I Will Rejoice!

Joseph M. Martin/Jonathan Martin/Brad Nix

Uses: General Worship

Scriptures: Psalm 27:32; John 12:35; Acts 13:47; Hebrews 13:6

There is an unrelenting confidence in this anthem which affirms the faithfulness of God in the life of the believer. This joyful declaration of hope is set to a vigorous musical concept, with a rhythmic “ground” that sets the stage, establishing a sturdy gait before the melody joins in. A contrasting chorale-like moment provides a respite from the energy of the opening before handing the anthem back to the forces of power and praise, and the final Coda is truly spectacular!

Uses: Lent, Christ the Good Shepherd, General Worship

Scriptures: Psalm 23; Luke 12:22-26; Philippians 4:11-12; I Thessalonians 5:18

A winsome offering from one of our most respected contemporary singer/songwriters has been made available to choirs. Springing from the beloved 23rd Psalm, the text affirms the presence of God and His provision for us in all situations. A very successful mixture of solo and choral singing produce a tapestry of worshipful sounds and accentuate the individual character of the lyric.

THE NEW 23RD

Ralph Carmichael/arr. John Purifoy

Uses: Lent, Christ the Good Shepherd, General Worship

Scriptures: Psalm 23

A pivotal song in the development of Contemporary Christian Music is re-visited in this loving homage. Wildly popular during the late sixties and early seventies, this choral piece inspired many young composers of the day. The message is universal, and the arrangement is well-crafted, filled with expressive opportunities. The piano writing is very effective and covers this setting of the 23rd Psalm with classic keyboard poetry. A standard!

ANTIPHONAL PSALM

Jon Paige/Michael E. Showalter

Uses: General Worship, Call to Worship, Introit, Service Music

Scriptures: Psalm 150

Here's a unique way to bring something classic into the worship gathering! Written for two equal choirs, this brief but effective call to worship uses the sanctuary in creative ways, all while exploring room space and acoustics. An optional solo trumpet brings a regal quality to this festive offering of praise.

JOY OF THE LORD

Rend Collective/Ed Cash/arr. David Angerman

Uses: General Worship, Praise Team, Youth Choir

Scriptures: Proverbs 10:28; Isaiah 9:3; John 16:22; Galatians 5:22-23

Here's the "feel-good" anthem of the year! Sure to put a smile in your soul, this rhythmic shout of praise is written in a folk-rock style, reminding us that no matter the circumstance, we should rejoice for we are always in God's care. An unrelenting piano pattern forms the "groove" of the piece that propels the arrangement forward, and the vocals are mostly three-part, creating an inviting shimmer in the harmonies. An a cappella moment with hand claps will literally "lift the roof." A must-do!

RUN BARTIMAEUS, RUN

Joseph M. Martin/Joel Raney

Uses: General Worship

Scriptures: Jeremiah 17:4; Matthew 9:35; Mark 10:46-52; James 5:14

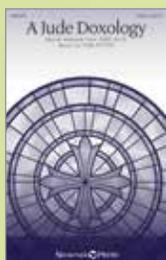

Overflowing with joy, this song based on Jesus' miraculous healing of a blind man is one of the most original octavos of recent publications! Infused with a quasi-Latin musical sensibility, the melody is instantly attractive, delivering the refrain with rhythmic vitality and engaging harmonies. As the story is told, the contrasting lyrical section allows the piece to breathe, as the choir becomes the troubadour, sharing the graceful touch of Jesus and His love. Don't miss this one!

A JUDE DOXOLOGY

Tom Fettke

Uses: General Worship, Benediction

Scriptures: Jude 24-25

This confident declaration is based on the closing verses in the Book of Jude. An impressive crescendo rises to announce the final statement, "To the only God, our Savior be dominion, power and authority and majesty through Jesus Christ." A final six-fold Amen crowns the work with beauty and brings the brief anthem to a serene conclusion. An excellent choice for a benediction or service closer!

SOMEWHERE IN THE SILENCE

Joseph M. Martin

Uses: Lent, General Worship, Ash Wednesday

Scriptures: Job 34:29; Lamentations 3:28; Daniel 2:19; Mark 4:11; Romans 16:25; I Corinthians 2:7

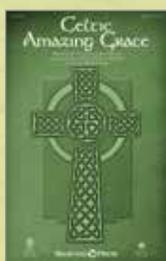

A very interesting poetic perspective is explored in this anthem that considers the silence, shadows and mystery of faith, reminding us that truth is sometimes revealed in moments of quiet contemplation and in times of seeking. The American folk hymn "Jesus, My Song in the Night" clarifies the Source of our answers, and arching melodic gestures with lush harmonies infuse this piece with a theatrical sweep that really connects.

CELTIC AMAZING GRACE

arr. Michael Ware

Uses: Lent, General Worship, Hymn Arrangement

Scriptures: Psalm 66:16; John 9:25; Romans 5:15

One of our most celebrated hymns is given a fresh treatment in this driving song of faith. Alive with a Celtic-inspired spirit, the piece practically sings itself! The surprise inclusion of another "grace" hymn in the body of the work will add a delightful twist to this attractive choral offering. Everyone, no matter the worship style, can embrace the hopeful message found in this instant classic!

Joseph M. Martin

Uses: Holy Week, Good Friday, General Worship

Scriptures: John 12:32; Romans 8:38-39; I Corinthians 1:18; I Peter 2:24

This troubadour-styled poem tells the story of a little sparrow who builds its nest in the crook of the cross. The allegory is clear: the safety of Calvary is a tower of shelter for the sinner. A simple folk-like melody delivers the story with basic harmonies, lending a charming innocence to the whole and portraying the cross as a tree of grace and hope.

CROWN HIM WITH MANY CROWNS

Matthew Bridges/George J. Elvey/arr. John Leavitt

Uses: General Worship, Hymn Arrangement, Ascension, Christ the King, Eastertide

Scriptures: Revelation 4:10; Revelation 14:14; Revelation 19:12

The supreme position of Christ the Lamb seated on the throne is established with magnificent music in this arrangement of this Sunday morning favorite. Bold, sweeping gestures adorn this version of the hymn with fantastic support being offered by the accompaniment and the optional chamber orchestration. Vocal parts will be encouraged by the quality of the harmonic writing, and listeners will instantly connect to the almost cinematic approach. Truly unique!

Joseph M. Martin/Stacey Nordmeyer

Uses: General Worship, Eastertide, Memorial

Scriptures: Psalm 89; Lamentations 3:22-23; Zephaniah 3:5; Hebrews 10:23

There is a hopeful spirit to this refreshing folk-styled anthem. Replete with images of God's great faithfulness, worshippers are reminded that His mercies are ever new. An easy-to-learn melody supports this encouraging message, and the harmonic qualities of the work contain a few tasteful surprises. The gentle guitar-like keyboard accompaniment is a sheer delight to play. Gracefully contemporary!

THE SONGS WILL NEVER LEAVE ME

*Ru Breau/Jim E. Davis/Phil Mehrens
arr. Heather Sorenson*

Uses: General Worship, Revival

Scriptures: Deuteronomy 31:6; Proverbs 10:7; Hebrews 13:5; Revelation 3:3

A wonderfully sincere sentiment is offered in this musical remembrance. Great songs of the church are recalled with fondness, as they remind us of the eternal truths of God. There is a gentle country/pop vibe, and the part-writing is very approachable for choirs of any age and size. Wherever the journey of life may take you, the songs will never leave you. Creative!

Joseph M. Martin

Uses: Ascension, Evangelism, Missions

Scriptures: Matthew 28:19-20; Mark 16:15; Acts 1:8; Romans 10:13-14

In this anthem based on the Great Commission, the opening curtain-raising gesture in the accompaniment is a call to purpose, introducing a hymn-like tune in strong unison. A powerful song of commitment and discipleship, this one would be a thoughtful option for festival choirs, or a perfect choice for missions and evangelism-based services. Inspiring!

VENI, SPIRITUS

Pamela Stewart/Brad Nix

Uses: Pentecost

Scriptures: Micah 3:8-10; John 3:6-8; Acts 1:1-8

The invocation of "Come, Holy Spirit" drives this energetic choral concept forward with a motive of praise. This prayer forms a rhythmic foundation; from there, a "call and response" format delivers a series of effective images of the Spirit's ministry among us. A contrasting chorale-styled middle section is a sonic sorbet between statements of the main theme. A final declaration, and the anthem ends with affirming confidence.

ANTHEM FOR COMMUNION

Samuel Kinner/Robert Lowry/arr. Jay Althouse

Uses: Communion

Scriptures: Isaiah 53:3-6; Mark 14:22-26; Luke 22:19-20; I Corinthians 11:17-34

A much-loved sacred melody combines with a new Communion text to create a meaningful offering for Lord's Supper observances. Crafted with care, the piece unfolds with elegance and refinement, and choirs will enjoy expressing the miracle of grace which is at the heart of the message. Moving!

FANFARE AND CONCERTATO ON "WE'RE MARCHING TO ZION"

arr. Brad Nix/Jon Paige

Uses: General Worship, Hymn Arrangement, All Saints Day, Church Heritage

Scriptures: Isaiah 35:10; Jeremiah 31:6; Ephesians 5:20

From our popular Fanfare and Concertato series comes this confident call of faith. The journey of promises in the text place the people of God marching to life everlasting. Though intended for choir and congregation, the anthem works just as well as a standalone. Accompany with the optional brass and handbells and make this a wonderful worship exclamation a festive opportunity for all. Superb!

THE GARDEN OF TEARS

Joseph M. Martin

Uses: Holy Week, Maundy Thursday

Scriptures: Matthew 26:36-56; Luke 22:39-46; John 17:20-23

Deeply moving music brings to life the sacred soliloquy of the Savior in Gethsemane. Opening with an expressive Welsh hymn tune, the piece then surrenders to the heartfelt prayers of Jesus as He confronts the shadow of His impending arrest and crucifixion. A bittersweet melody rises like a prayer from a text filled with imagery and emotion. The orchestration is restrained yet powerful, and along with the evocative vocals, creates a lush tone painting.

O SING, "JOYFUL!"

Patricia Mock/arr. Faye López

Uses: General Worship, Call to Worship

Scriptures: Psalm 71:23; Psalm 145:10; Romans 14:17; I John 4:16

With a driving piano intro, this piece catapults itself from the choir loft. A syncopated theme energizes opening moments as this psalm of praise begins. The middle section introduces the celebrated hymn "Joyful, Joyful, We Adore Thee," and the results are thrilling. From beginning to end... pure joy!

HEAR MY PRAYER

Daniel Greig/arr. Robert Sterling

Uses: Lent, General Worship

Scriptures: II Chronicles 7:14; Psalm 39:12; Psalm 86:6; I John 5:14

Written from a personal perspective, this prayerful ballad calls the believer to humbleness and reliance on the mercy of God. Portraying an authentic, almost vulnerable, spirit, there is a heart-felt expression to be found in the text.

The refrain is rich with colorful harmonies, adding to the emotive qualities of this sincere expression of faith. "Lord in heaven, hear my prayer. God, I need to know You're there."

arr. Richard Kingsmore

Uses: General Worship, Pentecost, Praise Team, Revival

Scriptures: Exodus 24:1-2; Jeremiah 30:21-22; Hebrews 10:1-10; James 4:8

There is a gentle "country" feel to this worshipful ballad, which calls for God's Spirit to draw us into a closer relationship with Christ. A good balance of unison/two-part writing and richer four-part harmonies make this a satisfying selection for traditional choral ensembles, and the lyrics make it useful all year long, especially during Pentecost.

NEW CANTATA

PORTRAITS IN GRACE

A Cantata for Holy Week

Joseph M. Martin

Uses: Lent, Holy Week, Good Friday, Maundy Thursday

Portraits in Grace is a musical gallery of faith displaying the life, ministry and passion of Jesus. Through scripture, narration and song, the backdrop is created for the reflections of the Lenten season, particularly during Holy Week. As the cantata moves through Christ's extraordinary life, each song displays the sacred beauty of the Savior, and lingers with His many graceful acts of love. The work ends with Christ's death on the cross and the bittersweet beauty of this redemptive gift to the world. With options that include the visual arts, the presentation can be expanded to include more members of your congregation, taking the cantata beyond the loft. A small consort of instruments is available, as well.

Songs include: Prelude; Portrait; Fairest Lord Jesus; The Healer; Behold the King; We Remember; A Sacred Garden; Let Us Gather in the Shadow of the Cross; Portrait of the Cross, Recessional of Shadows.

FEATURED COLLECTION

TESTAMENT OF PRAISE

A Celebration of Faith

Charles Wesley/Joseph M. Martin

Uses: General Worship, Hymn Arrangement

Originally commissioned for the 300th anniversary of Charles Wesley's birth, Testament of Praise contains arrangements of his most treasured hymns, along with original settings of some of his most inspiring lyrics. There are narrations and litanies that provide continuity of purpose as the work unfolds and celebrates the gifts of worship and praise in the life of the church. Each anthem stands on its own, allowing the book to function as a collection of favorites. Presented with full orchestrations by Brant Adams, you can use this choral menagerie anytime!

Songs include: Voices of Praise; Love Divine, All Loves Excelling; Thankful for Our Every Blessing; A Call to Service; Jesus, Lover of My Soul; And Can It Be?

CROWN THE KING WITH PRAISE

Douglas Nolan

Uses: Palm Sunday

Scriptures: II Kings 9:13; Zechariah 9:9; Luke 19:11-44; John 12:12-19

This energetic paean of praise is alive with the celebration of Christ's triumphant entrance into Jerusalem, and will be a standout in your Palm Sunday programming. Written in the style of a Hebrew folk dance, the piece captures the joyful spirit of Hosannas and waving palms. Two presentation options are available: one with clarinets and percussion, and another with an "easy-to-ring" handbell part. The SAB voicing makes this anthem a great choice for choirs of any size!

CREATE IN ME A CLEAN HEART

John Leavitt

Uses: Lent, General Worship

Scriptures: Psalm 51:10

The Word is made song in this stunning scripture setting. Music and message meet in this graceful offering, to become the perfect backdrop for your Lenten services or a time of confession. There is an organic quality to the way the chords move, giving the anthem an artful and impressionistic appeal.

Joel Raney

Uses: General Worship, Stewardship, Service

Scriptures: Galatians 5:22-23; Ephesians 4:2; II Timothy 2:24-25; James 3:17

A portrait of humble and faithful service is presented in this pleasing ballad. Melodically satisfying, the sweeping chorus climbs to impressive heights, carrying with it the core values to be faithful and true, patient and understanding, seeking wisdom, knowledge and truth. As if mirroring the message of a contrite heart, the anthem ends quiescently, enabling seamless worship flow. Accompany with piano, or add a handbell choir, for a truly unique offering. A teachable moment for the soul!

GOD'S PROMISES

arr. David Schmidt

Uses: General Worship, Hymn Arrangement, Revival

Scriptures: Hebrews 10:23; Psalm 22:4-5; Revelation 21:23

This mélange of hymns reminds us of the assurances of God and His eternal covenant of grace with His children. Hopeful and filled with recognizable tunes, this mini-medley will endear itself immediately to the people of faith. Compelling arranging characterizes the approach with the vocal writing, while the piano part provides a sturdy foundation, all coming together in this praiseworthy concept! Songs include: 'Tis So Sweet to Trust in Jesus; Standing on the Promises; On Jordan's Stormy Banks.

IN THE FATHER'S HANDS

Dan Whitaker/Mary McDonald

Uses: General Worship, Hymn Arrangement, Father's Day, Baptism, Child Dedication

Scriptures: Deuteronomy 6:6-9; Psalm 127:3-5; Proverbs 3:11-12; Proverbs 22:6

A rare find... a Father's Day offering that is very special call to purpose for dads. Using Jesus' earthly father Joseph as a model, the text explores a variety of ways that we can nurture spiritual excellence in our children. Set to the well-known hymn tune MARYTON, the alternate text of "O Master, Let Me Walk with Thee" is provided, so that the octavo can be used at other times, as well. Two anthems in one!

COME AND SEE

Patricia Mock/arr. Stewart Harris

Uses: Christ the Good Shepherd, General Worship

Scriptures: John 1:29; Psalm 66:5-6; John 1:1; John 8:32

Celebrating the ministry and miracles of Christ, the message in this joyous anthem will find a place in any worship gathering. Many references from Scripture about the names of God connect singers and listeners with the Almighty's divine attributes. Gentle syncopations and a memorable chorus make this song instantly successful, while the well-crafted accompaniment adds energy and texture. A true celebration of faith!

MUSIC IN THE MOUNTAINS

Joseph M. Martin

Uses: General Worship, Creation, Earth Day

Scriptures: Exodus 20:11; Psalm 95:3-6; Jeremiah 10:12-13

Rising and falling, this tuneful anthem in 6/8 celebrates the glory of Creation and the many ways it "sings" to us the mystery and majesty of God. Lilted with joyful alleluias, the music sprinkles strong unison sections in with full SATB writing. Some division in the choral parts creates special tone painting moments, and the orchestration offers instrumental and track options for churches needing those resources.

IF GOD BE FOR US

Joseph M. Martin

Uses: General Worship, Pentecost

Scriptures: Joshua 1:9; Proverbs 18:10; Isaiah 41:10; Romans 8:31

This festive anthem drives with an almost unrelenting power and confidence. Based on one of the great promises of scripture, there is much to celebrate in this assuring declaration. The minor key adds a serious intent to theme, and though rhythmically intense, it nonetheless is achievable by most choral ensembles. The contrasting B section offers rhythmic relief and a moment for reflection before the vitality of the opening takes us to a climactic, victorious ending.

GOD SHOWED HIS LOVE

Patricia Mock/arr. Brian Büda

Uses: Lent, Holy Week, General Worship

Scriptures: Romans 5:8; Romans 8:1; Ephesians 2:8; I John 4:10

This very special anthem moves organically like an ancient chant while being supported by a more contemporary chordal vocabulary. Springing from New Testament sources, the message contained in the lyric is one of grace:

“God showed His love for us in this: while we were still sinners, Christ died for us.” The music follows, perfectly rising and falling with intensity as the text delivers its powerful statement of assurance.

AT CALVARY'S CROSS

Nicole Elsey/Mary McDonald

Uses: Holy Week, Good Friday, General Worship, Communion

Scriptures: Genesis 4:4; Romans 3:25; I Timothy 2:6; Hebrews 7:27; I John 2:2

Based on a well-known text, this powerful testament of grace is rich with meaning and musical beauty. A winsome melody wafts like a folk tune against a flowing piano part, carrying with tender care the truth of Calvary and the awesome thoughts of Christ's atonement. The restrained ending helps transition from the “special music” moment to the sermon, or perhaps to function as a choral response to the message. Moving!

GIVE ME JESUS

arr. Cindy Berry

Uses: Lent, General Worship, Commitment, Stewardship

Scriptures: Matthew 6:19-21; John 15:1-11; Philippians 3:8; Colossians 3:17

Profound simplicity is embodied in this poignant spiritual. The whole of the Christian experience is contained in this powerful statement of deep faith, giving us a song of commitment for a life surrendered wholly to Jesus. A very effective piano accompaniment decorates this heartfelt testimony, providing both vocal support and lovely harmonic colors. Inspired writing!

IN HIS STEPS

R. Kevin Boesiger

Uses: Lent, General Worship, Commitment

Scriptures: Matthew 16:24-26; Luke 9:23; Hebrews 4:16

Written for the famed Ocean Grove Camp Meeting, this gospel toe-tapper is a winner from start to finish. Filled with easy-to-sing phrases of pure joy, the bold admonition to “Take up your cross and follow Jesus” permeates the message, complete with a quote from the beloved hymn, “I Need Thee Every Hour.” A fun to play piano part adorns the piece with a true gospel aesthetic, save for an awesome unaccompanied moment, complete with hand claps. Solid!

HOLY SPIRIT, COME

Henry H. Tweedy/Lloyd Larson

Uses: General Worship, Pentecost

Scriptures: John 14:26; Romans 8:26; I Thessalonians 5:19; Titus 3:6

From the very first measure, this tender anthem for the season of Pentecost offers a text of substance clothed with beautiful music. Sopranos and Altos in a rich opening theme lift a prayer for the divine presence of the Holy Spirit to descend. The refrain showcases all four parts in expressive stacks of worshipful harmonies, all arranged with careful attention to voice leading and range, and pianists will enjoy the artistry of the accompaniment as it paints the words it supports.

SHOUT UNTO GOD

Heather Sorenson

Uses: General Worship, Concert, Call to Worship, Introit, Trinity Sunday

Scriptures: Psalm 100; Joshua 6:20; I Chronicles 15:28; Psalm 47

Like an engine of festive praise, this choral juggernaut bursts through expectations with fresh harmonies and clusters of sonic joy. Breaking forth from the opening notes, the full power of the chorus is explored with vocal division throughout the whole ensemble. Powerful in its impact, the anthem crescendos to a statement of the Doxology and then drives with unrelenting jubilation to the final Amen! For concert hall or sanctuary usage.

HE WILL HOLD ME FAST

Ada Habershon/Matt Merker/arr. James Koerts

Uses: Lent, General Worship, Memorial

Scriptures: Genesis 28:15; Isaiah 41:13; Matthew 6:25-34; I Peter 5:7

From the opening notes, this sacred song presents a special gentleness that engages the mind and encourages the spirit. The substantial text amplifies the promises of God and reminds listeners that we are never alone. Unison singing brings a clarity to the words and makes richer four-part moments even more luscious. A worshipful testament of the faithfulness of Christ!

REFLECTIONS IN THE CUP

I Am the Lamb

Pamela Stewart/Brad Nix

Uses: Holy Week, Communion, Maundy Thursday

Scriptures: John 1:29; I Peter 1:13-19; Revelation 12:11; Revelation 17:14

A highly original text imagines the dramatic scenes that unfold as Jesus prepares for His Passion. Grasping His destiny as the Lamb of God, Jesus sees His death in the elements of the Last Supper and in the reflections of the chalice. Musically profound, the main theme is brooding and mysterious, setting the scene. A mournful solo adorns the B section, accompanied by choral lushness. A vision of the cross gives way to a touching epilogue of reflection as the piece fades into a peaceful conclusion. Profound!

GOD BE WITH YOU TILL WE MEET AGAIN

Jeremiah F. Rankin/William G. Tomer
arr. Heather Sorenson

Uses: General Worship, Hymn Arrangement, Benediction, Communion

Scriptures: Numbers 6:24-26; Song of Solomon 2:4; Acts 20:32; II Thessalonians 3:16

A sacred evergreen is given new life in the capable hands of a master arranger. Lush vocal harmonies and emotive keyboard writing create a pleasing ambience of warmth and community. Treasured by many as a closer for Lord's Supper observances, this adaptation expands beyond the typical one verse congregational moment and brings about a choral offering of beauty and grace. Two presentation options are provided: one as an anthem, and shortened version for benediction usage.

THE BEST OF BOCK

HALLELUJAH HE IS RISEN

Brian Buda/arr. Philip Bliss/Stephanie Lynn Buda

Uses: Easter

It is the driving of the piano accompaniment that first grabs your attention. Then comes the Easter text riding on a modern melody. But in the end it is the surprising harmonies that seals the deal. This is a great Easter anthem.

00254376 SATB.....$2.45

WAIT FOR THE LORD

Mark Roseberry

Uses: General Worship

The text from Psalm 27 is a familiar one about keeping the faith when times are hard; and Mark Roseberry's setting does it great service. The musical path that leads to the word "wait" is hopeful and reassuring. The silence following "wait" is appropriately descriptive and the final a cappella moment is brilliant. A church anthem of assurance.

HE WHO COMFORTS ME

Joshua Metzger

Uses: General Worship, Pentecost

This anthem is a prayer of gratitude and trust that would be effective almost anytime. Thanks to some references to the "Comforter" it is also effective during pentecost. The music is gentle in nature with a flowing melody.

00254377 SATB.....$2.15

WHEN I CAN READ MY TITLE CLEAR

Tim Sharp

Uses: Lent, General Worship

From Kentucky Harmony and Isaac Watts comes a tune that rings with American 19th century harmonies. Tim Sharp has set an 8 part, a cappella version that follows the mood of the text, changing key and tempo accordingly. A most satisfying arrangement, it is a great concert or festival number for high school through college.

00248836 SATB.....$2.15

DEPTH OF MERCY

Victoria Schwarz

Uses: Lent, Communion

The wonderful thing about "Depth of Mercy" are the sentiments the music yields. The open harmonies and the mournful cello establish an attentive emotion that is profound and grateful. The Charles Wesley text sounds contemporary in this Lenten setting. Excellent for the Lenten season and communion services.

RING OUT THE GOSPEL NEWS

Patricia Mock/arr. Faye López

Uses: Easter

The expression marking opens with "Soulfully, in a gospel style," and you know right away you are in for a good time. Patricia Mock is a skilled poet and song writer, and Faye Lopez is a super arranger. The piano part grooves nicely and some solo opportunities include some ad lib options. This is an Easter anthem that rocks with joy and style.

00254390 SATB.....$2.45

UP CALVARY'S MOUNTAIN

Ed Rush

Uses: Lent, Communion

Handel's famous "Sarabande" serves as the opening theme to this stirring Lenten anthem. The text comes from Avis Christiansen and matches the tune well. The switch to D major permits a newly composed melody to emerge, one of assurance. Returning to Handel's strain, the piece ends in strength and praise.

O PRAISE THE GRACIOUS POWER

Lloyd Larson

Uses: General Worship

Lloyd Larson put on his most distinguished and regal robes when he composed this piece. Using a text by the revered theologian, Thomas Troeger, and poet John Oxenham, Larson presents a magnificent theme. The St. Peter hymn tune (In Christ There Is No East Or West) with congregation crowns the anthem beautifully.

Scored with optional brass and percussion, this commission praises God and honors our unity in Christ.

ALAS AND DID MY SAVIOR BLEED

Hugh Wilson/arr. Barbara J. Haestings

Uses: Lent

Using a traditional American melody, Barbara Haestings has used the words of Isaac Watts and John Newton to create a beautiful Lenten anthem. She also smuggles in sound bytes of "Amazing Grace" to strengthen its ties to American soil. All these things wedded together offer a communion or Lenten selection that is easy to medium in difficulty.

LOVE'S REDEEMING WORK IS DONE

Hugh Benham

Uses: Lent, Communion

The text comes from Charles Wesley of the 18th century, but the music comes from 21st century England. Clothed in a garb of lofty cathedrals the music begins majestically. Suddenly a stunning contrast in delicate a pappella counterpoint captures our imagination saying, "Christ has opened Paradise." This is truly an Easter anthem with a great deal to say.

SEVEN LAST WORDS OF CHRIST

Richard Burchard

In a few short years Richard Burchard has become one of the most sought-after and commissioned composers for choral music. His choral writing is romantic and rich harmonically with dense contrapuntal lines. Now he has brought that excellence into an extended work on the "Seven Last Words" accompanied by divisi strings. This is a breath-taking work. A keyboard reduction for organ that can also accompany the work has been provided. It is a sacred piece that will also perform well in concert venues. Church, community and college choirs will find this a worthy piece to program. Medium in difficulty.
