OSCAR PETERSON: THE LIFE OF A LEGEND
Featuring Quincy Jones, Dizzy Gillespie, Ella Fitzgerald, Norman Granz and more
VIEW Video
In Peterson’s own articulate voice we hear stories of the man who made the music and the times that made the man: making history with Norman Granz’s Jazz at the Philharmonic, the clashes with racism that faced him and his racially-mixed trio, and a lifetime of performances with a who’s-who of jazz. Insightful moments at the Peterson family’s reunion disclose the personal price of greatness paid by Oscar and his relatives, distanced by the pianist’s commitment to his music and his years of life on the road. A personal look at a technical virtuoso and master of swing whose life has been shaped by the ambition to honor his father’s credo: “Be the best.” 2 Tapes - 51 minutes each.

OSCAR PETERSON: MUSIC IN THE KEY OF OSCAR with Ella Fitzgerald, Dizzy Gillespie, Quincy Jones, Norman Granz and more
VIEW Video
This riveting new music documentary traces the history of piano legend Oscar Peterson, from his early days as Montreal’s teenage boogie-woogie sensation through his meteoric rise to international celebrity. One highlight in the treasure trove of musical gems is the legendary Oscar Peterson Trio (bassist Ray Brown and guitarist Herb Ellis) who, after a twenty-year hiatus, reunited in order to “prove that it still had the magic.” Over 45 minutes of classic and contemporary performances complemented by rare film footage and in-depth interviews with a cast of jazz legends, creates a chronicle spanning four decades of Oscar Peterson’s unforgettable music. Two tapes, 48 minutes each.

THE DEXTER GORDON QUARTET
Rhapsody Films

“Dexter Gordon is warming up as this Jazz at the Maintenance Shop gig opens, still cutting an imposing presence as he ponders his saxophone. ‘It’s You or No One’ features a commanding Gordon solo, followed by a hair-raising ride by pianist George Cables. ‘The Panther’ features drummer Eddie Glaudien as a dynamo, swinging like crazy, with bassist Rufus Reid the perfect pocketkeeper. Gordon switches to soprano for ‘Alone Together’ and takes a searing ride. The saxophonist is a huge presence on ‘Back Stairs,’ building to a remarkable peak; then Cables unleashes a flight of fancy filled with witty asides, while Glaudien sets the place on fire. THIS IS SOME STARTLING JAZZ.”

With Julie Lyonn Lieberman on violin (assisted by Martha Colby on cello)

Huisku Music

The string community is in the midst of a stylistic metamorphosis. Scores are incorporating scales, rhythms, ornaments, and textural ideas from the music of the world. Over eighteen string styles have surged in popularity, including blues, swing, rock, old time, Celtic, Cajun, Cape Breton, Flamenco, Gypsy and Latin, to name a few.

Whether you want to learn a new style, be ready for anything that comes up at a jam session, or meet the demands of new orchestral scores with ease, this video will help you develop the necessary right-hand skills. Julie Lyonn Lieberman has examined the technical demands of all the alternative styles and organized the most essential right-hand skills into one video.

Part I – The Bow Hand includes demonstrations on violin and cello: basic bow hold • muscle isolation exercises (fingers, dome, wrist, and forearm) • paradiddles: twos and threes • clipped bows • upbows and syncopation • swells, surges and scoops • rhythmizing the bow • rock ponticello • swing bowings and fiddle bowings including shuffle stroke, the whip, the Flamenco flick and cross-bow patterns • playing healthy • and more!

“In the midst of making his film Kansas City, Robert Altman decided to recreate an all-night jam session as it might have taken place in a Kansas City club during the Depression era. The city, Mr. Altman’s hometown, was a magnet for great jazz musicians. Mr. Altman, who was 9 years old in 1934, places his film in the Hoy Hey Club, letting the musicians rule triumphantly. The music, covering composers from Count Basie to Duke Ellington, is toe-tappingly seductive. In no time at all, it’s easy to forget that this is not some archival film but a modern reinterpretation of classic jazz with enormously talented musicians of today. There is a ‘battle of the saxes,’ which actually took place between the legendary tenor saxophonists Coleman Hawkins and Lester Young. The recreation by Craig Handy and Joshua Redman is nothing short of thrilling.”

Songs performed include: Tickkle Toe • Indiana • Solitude • Blues in the Dark • Prince of Wails • Frogy Bottom • Harvard Square • King Portor Stomp • Lafayette • Lullaby of the Leaves • Piano Boogie • Pagan’ the Devil • Moten Swing • Queen Nontions • Yeah Man. 75 minutes.

John Denver is one of the best-known musicians of our times, and the songs he sings are among the best-loved melodies ever, from “Sunshine on My Shoulder” to “Calypso” to “Annie’s Song.” John’s songs evoke images of the simplicity of nature and the complexity of human emotions, yet they also display a concern for a wide range of environmental and political issues. In this video portrait, John Denver takes the viewer on a tour of songs that have spanned his entire career: from the inspiration of “Rocky Mountain High” to the political concerns of “Let Us Begin (What Are We Making Weapons For).” He shares the stories behind the songs, offering glimpses into both his craft and his private life. Also featured are segments from John’s enormously popular TV specials and his reflections on his acting career. Truly, this collection is one that both long-time fans and lovers of America’s most beloved music can treasure as an intimate look at one of the finest entertainers of this or any other generation. 60 minutes.

ANTONIO CARLOS JOBIM: AN ALL-STAR TRIBUTE

Starring Herbie Hancock (musical director), Shirley Horn, Gonzalo Rubalcaba, Jon Hendricks, Joe Henderson, Gail Costa, & Antonio Carlos Jobim

VIEW Video

Direct from Brazil in his last recorded performance, Antonio Carlos Jobim (1927-1994) is joined by an international delegation of jazz giants to recreate his classic melodies in a beautiful, concert-length “thank you.” With over 400 songs to his credit, including the unforgettable “The Girl from Ipanema,” Jobim virtually single-handedly brought the world to bossa nova. Adapting the percussive excitement of the samba to the intimacy of the guitar while echoing the melodies and harmonies of cool jazz, Jobim’s new sound quickly became a staple ingredient in the jazz cookbook, earning Jobim an induction into the Songwriter’s Hall of Fame in 1991. Includes: Once I Loved • O Grande Amor • No More Blues • Wave • The Girl from Ipanema • and more. 60 minutes.

JOHN DENVER – A PORTRAIT

Cherry Lane Music

John Denver is one of the best-known musicians of our times, and the songs he sings are among the best-loved melodies ever, from “Sunshine on My Shoulder” to “Calypso” to “Annie’s Song.” John’s songs evoke images of the simplicity of nature and the complexity of human emotions, yet they also display a concern for a wide range of environmental and political issues. In this video portrait, John Denver takes the viewer on a tour of songs that have spanned his entire career: from the inspiration of “Rocky Mountain High” to the political concerns of “Let Us Begin (What Are We Making Weapons For).” He shares the stories behind the songs, offering glimpses into both his craft and his private life. Also featured are segments from John’s enormously popular TV specials and his reflections on his acting career. Truly, this collection is one that both long-time fans and lovers of America’s most beloved music can treasure as an intimate look at one of the finest entertainers of this or any other generation. 60 minutes.

Drumming for Kids

Making the Basics Fun & Easy

Taught by Sam Zucchini
Homespun Video

Drum kit NOT required! Sam Zucchini makes drumming fun and easy as he teaches how to keep time, count beats, understand rhythm and get tuned in to playing in an ensemble. Award-winning children’s entertainers The Zucchini Brothers join in on guitar and keyboards so the young drummer can play along with the band. If there’s a drum set in the house, that’s fine - but not necessary. Sam takes an ordinary kitchen stool and shows how to start using drumsticks to keep the beat on the rubber step-pad. The learning drummer develops coordination and timing through a series of interactive exercises that keep him or her involved and actively participating by playing along with the video.

Hal Leonard

Dictionary of Dance features over 450 choreography terms, defined and demonstrated with the music teacher in mind. The movements are alphabetized and numbered for ease of use, with easy to follow diagrams, diagrams and dozens of demonstration photos for further visual reference. The video features step-by-step instruction of these movements as demonstrated by John Jacobson and 4 student dance models, and presented in the same order as the book version for your quick reference. Sold separately, or together in a pak, this book & video reference is a must for your music library!

GOTTA SING, GOTTA DANCE: BASICS OF CHOREOGRAPHY AND STAGING
with John Jacobson
John Jacobson provides a comprehensive resource that covers the basics of choreography and staging. Featuring a step-by-step approach, these videos are a powerful teaching tool that will help you and your groups develop the “know-how” to add professional “pizzazz” to your musical performances. Topics include: The Basics Come First, Putting It All Together, Staging the Concert, and Movement and Staging for the Young Choir.

JOHN JACOBSON’S RISER CHOREOGRAPHY
A DIRECTOR’S GUIDE FOR ENHANCING CHORAL PERFORMANCES
Hal Leonard
John Jacobson’s ideas for staging and choreography on choral risers have been compiled in this easy-to-use resource for the beginning or veteran choral director. Covering basic formations, visual effect, and simple gestures that enhance the lyrics, this practical guide will help you incorporate all kinds of staging into your performance.

KIDS ON STAGE
with John Jacobson
Hal Leonard
Whether you are a veteran director of children's musicals or a novice, you will turn to this easy-to-use resource again and again! Like John Jacobson's popular “Riser Choreography”, this practical guide will lead you and your students into the wonderful world of “putting on a show.” Even if your “stage” is really just the gym floor, you’ll discover how to make the most of your performance through dozens of helpful photos and John’s clever step-by-step approach. See the techniques come alive on the video with John and a group of real 6th graders as they learn how to project their lines and communicate with the audience in several scenes and excerpts of musicals. Topics include basic stage terminology, blocking, stage projection, moving on stage, the use of microphones, developing and practicing self confidence, learning how to rehearse, helping the “background performers” feel special, tips on sound systems and accompaniment tapes, and many more to help give your performance that professional look. For Grades 3-8.

WE’RE ALL AMERICANS
by David Grover and the Big Bear Band
Hal Leonard
We all can make a difference! It’s a message about showing respect and love… about connecting with another no matter how different. Celebrate diversity and harmony with this inspiring collection by accomplished singer/songwriter and educator David Grover, based on a special concert of music and messages that brought together three groups of children from very different backgrounds. Songs include: Connection, The Golden Rule, Do Your Best, It Doesn’t Take Much To Make You Happy, The Work Song, I Like the Flowers, He May Be Slow, We’re All Americans, Peace Like a River/Amen.

WORLD MUSIC DRUMMING
by Will Schmid
Hal Leonard
Aimed primarily at grades 6-8 with extensions into the lower elementary grades and the high school, you and your students will learn drumming techniques, sing lots of great songs with accompaniment and movement, connect African and Latin American cultural traditions to the music performed, and discover how music can be the perfect vehicle for teaching team building, respect, focusing, listening, problem solving, and other important life skills. This helpful video goes right into the classroom to show how to teach the lessons, using middle school students to demonstrate the parts.
DINOSAURS AND MONSTERS
Mister Rogers, America’s trusted family friend, helps young children understand what scary monsters are – and aren’t – about. Childhood fears are real fears, even though many things that give rise to them are only fantasy.
Dinosaurs, for instance, were real, so Mister Rogers visits a museum where dinosaur skeletons are exhibited. Some of them had very big teeth. He also visits a construction site and learns how to operate a backhoe ... with its very big teeth!
In the Neighborhood of Make Believe, the puppet Prince Tuesday has been having scary dreams about dinosaurs. The mischievous Lady Elaine Fairchild can’t resist adding her own excitement with a dinosaur costume and her own kind of magic. Lady Aberlin and Handyman Negri clear up the resulting confusion and help the younger neighbors understand what is real and what is not. All this and more, as Mister Rogers talks and sings about important feelings of childhood. 64 minutes.

WHAT ABOUT LOVE?
In this video visit from Mister Rogers’ Neighborhood, creator and host Fred Rogers thinks about love in all its different guises. It’s the people we love the most that can make us the maddest, Mister Rogers reminds us, while encouraging children to find appropriate ways to express their strong feelings. One way to express anger, for instance, might be to play a xylophone or a drum; percussionist Don Liuzzi helps with this. This video both affirms the value of love and acknowledges other feelings that can go along with it. 51 minutes.

WHEN PARENTS ARE AWAY
As children grow, there are times when their parents must be away – whether the children stay at home with a sitter or are in daycare. In this video visit, television’s Mister Rogers helps children and adults deal with these times. In typical Rogers style, this visit contains songs, honest talk, outings to a daycare center and a graham cracker factory, and, of course, journeys to the land of Make Believe. Mister Rogers: When Parents Are Away can help your family talk about times of separation – and the feelings those times bring. 66 minutes.

It is 1742 and we are in Dublin, where ten-year-old Jamie O’Hara and the brilliant composer George Frederic Handel live. Jamie, who comes from a very poor family, has been caught stealing and is in jail. Handel, whose career is failing, needs his newest composition to be a big hit. By a stroke of destiny, the boy finds in one another a piece of life that fills his empty heart. For both know too well what it’s like not to be able to follow your dream. Set in 1717, Bach’s 32nd year, Bach’s Fight for Freedom passionately argues that the only master you can serve faithfully is your own heart.

Bach’s Fight For Freedom
The chapel organist, Johann Sebastian Bach, is enraged. It’s bad enough his boss, Duke Wilhelm, stifles his creativity. Now the bumbling fool has given him a servant he suspects is a spy! But soon, the temperamental composer recognizes a kindred soul in his new 10-year-old assistant, Frederick. For both know too well what’s its like not to be able to follow your dream. Set in 1717, Bach’s 32nd year, Bach’s Fight for Freedom passionately argues that the only master you can serve faithfully is your own heart.

Bach’s Fight For Freedom
Rich and successful, a dashing young musical superstar so adored that women faint when they meet him in the street, Franz Liszt is restless. He knows that something is missing in his glamorous life as the world’s greatest concert pianists. He meets Josy, a naturally gifted young Gypsy street musician, and subsequently wagers that he can turn Josy into a world-class musician. The bet turns into a mighty struggle of wills – the worldly sophisticate against the resourceful Gypsy boy and a conflict of freedom vs. discipline, heart vs. brain, passion vs. technique. Set in 1846, Liszt’s Rhapsody celebrates the miracle of talent and the triumph of dreams fulfilled.

Liszt’s Rhapsody
In a kitchen in Italy in 1862, little Reliana helps her grandmother Rosalie make pasta sauce. As stream swirls magically through the kitchen, Rosalie argues with her oldest friend Martina and tells the story of an opera composer they once both knew. Soon, Reliana finds herself transported through time back to a theatre in Rome nearly 50 years earlier. She is invisible to everyone except the composer, Signor Rossini. She watches in alarm as one of the singers puts a curse on the production and everything begins to go wrong. Set in 1816, the year The Barber of Seville had its disastrous premiere, Rossini’s Ghost is the story of three women who learn that your dream – or a great pasta sauce – requires nurturing, patience, and time.

Rossini’s Ghost
It is 1742 and we are in Dublin, where ten-year-old Jamie O’Haberty and the brilliant composer George Frederic Handel live. Jamie, who comes from a very poor family, has been caught stealing and is in jail. Handel, whose career is failing, needs his newest composition to be a big hit. By a stroke of destiny, the young boy and the composer become unlikely allies. Handel gets Jamie out of jail and the boy lends his golden voice to the first performance of Messiah. This production is filled with many of Handel’s most glorious musical works, and the captivating story reminds us that when you believe in yourself you can make comebacks in life and often get one last chance.

Handel’s Last Chance
The year is 1868, the city – Vienna, the music – exhilarating, yet all is not well with Johann Strauss, Jr., the darling of waltzing Vienna. Haunted by the constant pressure to outdo himself with each new composition, Strauss meets Nicholas, a humble stable boy who fears his brutal stepfather. To their surprise, the composer and the boy find in one another a piece of life’s emotional puzzle, discovering the healing bond of trust and embarking on a collaboration that will be music to the world’s ears.

THE ART OF MIXING – VIDEO BOXED SET

by David Gibson

ArtistPro

The #1 all-time bestselling book on mixing comes to life in over three and a half hours of vivid, detailed animated instruction in this great new two-video set! With Gibson’s exclusive 3D visual framework, you’ll learn the right way to create every style of mix for any style of music. Video 1 focuses on the visual representations of audio imaging and studio equipment. It provides an introduction to the visual framework achieved from representing sounds in mixes. Covers: the specific correlations between audio parameters and video parameters, volume (front/back), panning (left/right), frequency (up/down), and time. It also gives descriptions and visuals of the functions of compressors, limiters, noise gates, equalization, delays, and EQ and effects. Video 2 uses the visual framework introduced in the first video to explain how to use studio equipment to create various types of mixes. It teaches viewers the basic concept of making a mix that is appropriate for the music and song, and lets them explore the complete range of possibilities available to the engineer in a mix using volume, panning, and EQ effects.

ArtistPro Publishing - the world’s leading producer of pro audio educational book and video titles - embarks on an ambitious quest to improve your studio production skills with this expansive, all-new InstantPro DVD series. This series explores basic and advanced functions of the recording industry’s most popular software programs, and features all the inside knowledge you need to get the most out of your studio investment.

Each DVD runs at least 90 minutes and is hosted by an expert on the latest version of the program being presented. With cross-platform programs, the DVD covers both the Mac and PC versions. All parts of these interactive DVDs are fully accessible through detailed menus, making sure that it will be easy to find whatever topic is of particular interest to you.

CUBASE 5.1
Cubase VST has quickly become one of the most popular recording and sequencing programs for both the Mac and PC, and is used equally in pro and home studios throughout the world. The program is packed with features, and these two DVDs will guide you through every basic feature and every nuance. The beginner DVD is for those who have just acquired the program, and will guide the learner through basic audio and MIDI functions, mixing and editing. The advanced DVD is for those who already have a working knowledge of Cubase and want to use the program to its full potential, including effects automation, advanced MIDI and Audio functions, and synchronization. Both DVDs apply to all current 5.1 versions of Cubase for both the Mac and PC. Each disc contains about 3 hours of instruction.
