Serge Rachmaninoff: Vocalise, Op. 34, No. 14
Chamber Orchestra
Novello

An arrangement of Rachmaninoff’s famous “song without words” for chamber orchestra by conductor and composer José Serebrier. The beautiful melody and stirring harmonies would be a fine addition to a small orchestra’s repertoire.

BOOKS

THE REAL TOSCANINI
MUSIANS REVEAL THE MAESTRO
by Cesare Civetta
Amadeus Press
Lauded by Verdi, Debussy, and other music legends, the celebrated conductor Arturo Toscanini raised the standards of orchestral and operatic performance over an astonishing 69 years on the podium. But as he did so, he acquired a reputation as something of a tyrant, who unleashed an explosive temper at musicians if rehearsals did not meet his expectations. Cesare Civetta presents an intriguing collection of vivid, one-of-a-kind interviews with artists who performed with Toscanini. A portrait of the inner workings of the maestro emerges through these extensive conversations, conducted by the author over a period of 20 years, together with other firsthand recollections. These accounts clarify Toscanini's philosophy, musical style, and techniques.

HIGH NOTES AND LOW
300 AND A FEW MORE WHIMSYCAL ANECDOTES
CONCERNING MUSIC AND MUSICIANS
by Ray W. Moore
Amadeus Press
Everyone loves to laugh, to wonder, and to be amazed. High Notes and Low presents interesting and unusual anecdotal information about classical music and musicians in a down-to-earth, easily readable form. Free of technical jargon, the book is appealing not only to the musician but to the general reader as well, and offers information that all can enjoy. Divided into six sections that provide general categories of anecdotes: Composers, Performers, Critics, Conductors, Compositions, and This and That.
